DR. GARDNER AT HIS BEST.

SCORES A MOST IMPRESSIVE VICTORY IN THE HANDICAP.

Will Start in the Excelsior-Fresh Wins at 60 to 1-Okenite Takes the Arverne Stakes-Disagreeable Weather.

New York, April 19 .- Dr. Gardner, the son of Bannockburn, for which T. D. Sullivan and Frank J. Farrell paid Barney Schreiber $15,000 last fall, made his first appearance of the season in the handicap at six and one-half furlongs, which he won so impressively as to crystalize the plan of campaign of the stable trained by Frank Weir as regards the next two big handicaps. Weir's stable includes in addition to Dr. Gardner, the horses of Frank Farrell and Davy Johnson. It had been the plan to start Roseben in the Sterling, but Mr. Johnson is so well pleased with Roseben's impost for the Metropolitan that it was decided today to Dr. Gardner for the Sterling Stakes and the Excelsior Handicap at Jamaica and reserve Roseben for the Metropolitan. Mr. Johnson said that the big sprinter would not be seen in public again until the opening day at Belmont Park. That Dr. Gardner will worthily represent the stable in the Sterling and Excelsior no one who saw his race today can doubt. While there was little of high class opposed to him, there was great speed represented by Avaunteer and Heaslip, yet Dr. Gardner gave them chunks of weight and the race was little more than an exercise gallop for him. He is a grand looking four-year-old and is sure to be troublesome in the best company.

It was anything but pleasant racing weather to-It snowed hard from early morning until well into the afternoon and was very disagreeable, but the attendance was only slightly affected by it. The Aside from the victory of Dr. Gardner, the feature of the racing was the success of Fresh, a 60 to 1 shot, from the Oneck Stable, which beat Youthful by a narrow margin after a long stretch duel. Youthful was backed from 20 to 1 to 7 to 2 and a killing of vast proportions would have been made had won, but Englander could not help him at the decisive time, Lowe clearly outriding him.

The going favored Okenite and he had little difficulty in winning the Arverne Stakes. He was a well backed favorite. Tomorrow's card embraces three stake races and with such cracks as Sir Toddington, Fustian, Pater; Pagan Bey, Dulcian, Dr. Logan; Notasulga, Master Robert, Bellwether; Juggler, Oxford, W. H. Carey; Rustle, Martha Jane, Senator Beckham; Fire Opal, probable starters, it is anticipated that the day will AT AQUEDUCT NEXT WEEK.

be marked by an enormous attendance.

After four days of racing next week the Aqueduct meeting terminates and the horses move over to the Metropolitan Jockey Club's track at Jamaica, where the $10,000 Excelsior Handicap will be run a week from today. At Aqueduct, Monday afternoo the Union Stakes will be the star feature. The This is a dash of seven furlongs for three-year-olds under selling conditions. It has forty-seven nominations, which Botanist, Molesey, Berkeley, Malacca, Marathon, Bright Boy, Kernochan, Lady Vera, Colonel Jack, Killochan, Tileing, J. C. Core, Saracenesca, Oraculum, Rosemount, Campaigner, El Dorado, Barbary Belle, Eddie Ware, Acrobat and Ampedo have good racing credentials and, with owners having the privilege of adjusting weights to their own satisfaction, a fast and closely-contested race should mark the decision of the Union. The Sterling Stakes, at weight for age, one mile three-year-olds and over, will be run Tuesday A number of excellent racers are enafternoon. gaged in this event with the redoubtable Roseben at the head and sure to be hard to beat if sent post. But with Dr. Gardner, Whimsical, Brookdale Nymph, Oxford, Inquisitor, Minnie Adams, Wes, Blandy, Don Diego, Cressina, Superman, Von Tromp, J. C. Core and other rapid ones also engaged, it is apparent that even Roseben may have no time to waste in this race.

The Woodhaven Stakes for two-year-olds, will be decided Wednesday. It is a scurry of four and a half furlongs under selling conditions, with seventynine entries of which Magazine, Martha Jane, Rustle, Blue Heron, Rifle Range, Thomas Calhoun, Albia, Masks and Faces, Frizette, E. M. Fry, Aunt Rose, Laura Clay, Coincident and Billy Bowlegs have alscored winning brackets and others have run well: while there is also a big contingent of finelybred youngsters not yet sent to the post. Thursday is the last day of the meeting and it has two stake races assigned to it for settlement, the Glendale Steeplechase and the Flushing Stakes. The Glenis over a course of about two and a half miles, and of its thirty nominations T. S. Martin, Delcanta, Yama Christy, Pagan Bey, Tom Cogan, Dick Shaw, Kernel, Thistledale, Grandpa, Pioneer, Hot Shot, Self Protection, Dr. Logan and Bound Brook appear best. However, it is a handicap and the result hinges on weights yet to be apportioned. The Flushing is a selling affair at a mile, and among its entries appear the names of such speedy performers as Grapple, Juggler, Pretension, Ed Ball, Judge Post, Molesey, Savable, Pater, Orphan Lad, Red Friar, Glorifier, Botanist, Leonard Joe Hayman, Von Tromp, The Picket, Orbicular, J. C. Core, Rye and Jacobite, so it is apparent that the last stake of the Queens County Jockey Club spring meeting easily turn out to be the medium of a cracking

PIMLICO MEETING WILL OPEN TODAY. Bright Prospects for the Thirteen Days at the Famous Old Baltimore Track.

Baltimore, Md., April 19 .- Pimlico's spring meeting will open tomorrow with pleasing prospec Interest in racing has been growing steadily in Baltimore ever since the new Maryland Jockey Club took charge of affairs and each meeting under the regime has been an improvement over the preceding one, and it looks as if this meeting will be the best yet and above the average outside of the metropolitan circuit. In point of number and class of horses it will be far ahead of any in the past, at the local track. The scarcity of racing in the west has caused many owners who do not race in the east to ship to Baltimore and this new contingent brings many good horses. All the stable room at Pimlico was taken up sometime ago and everything within striking distance of the track that would give shelter to a horse has been eagerly snapped up.

The entries for tomorrow show what may be expected. Every race has a big field. So many were entered in the first race that it was necessary to split it and make a seventh race for the day.

Much attention has always been given to the jumpers at Pimlico and at this meeting the steeplechases will play an unusually prominent part. Fully fifty of the best cross-country horses now in train ing are here and they have all been schooling well. Some of the steeplechase jockeys here are: bald, E. Heider, Sheffield, Hagan, Henry, Murphy, Soffel, Slaughter, Bowser, Davis, Sampson, Wilson and McCabe. There are no Millers of Radtkes for the flat, but for all that, a good average lot of boys will be seen and as they are about evenly matched for skill, the competition will be keen. Up to date the following boys have reported: Mitchell, O'Leary, Koenig, A. Martin, L. Smith, J. Johnson, Diggins, Goldstein, McCarthy, C. Morris, John Hennessy, Noone, A. Lee, Alex, Leibert, Mahon, J. O'Brien, Knopf, Klenck and Brooks.

The track is now in excellent condition. A little rain fell this morning, but it did no harm and if it continues clear, fast time may be looked for. Yesterday it was said that Lotus Eater worked a mile in 1:41 and a two-year-old which the work-watchers could not identify, reeled off a little mile in

The features of the card tomorrow are the Green Spring Valley Steeplechase and the Baltimore Club Cup for gentlemen riders. This latter event will bring out the society element. The riders as far as known tonight will be: Racine II., Mr. Wright; Quadrille, Mr. O'Brien; Calmness, Mr. Taylor; Thomond, Mr. Henderson, Bracing Breeze, Mr. Black, and The Cricket, Mr. Tucker.

The Green Spring Valley Steeplechase, brings out a fine field of jumpers, is thought to be between Dr. Keith and Kara. Both horses schooled yesterday. Dr. Keith went once around in fault-less style and as he is right on edge, will be a hard horse to beat. Kara took the circuit twice, but did not jump as well as Dr. Keith. Mike Daly, however, is supremely confident and says he has the winner sure. Bound Brook will probably not start.

Among the horses entered for tomorrow are the following which are known to be of good quality: Diamond, Belle Strome, Tickle; Blember, Merry Man, Oreodon; Euripides, Azelina, Wabash Queen; Kara, Dr. Keith, Captain Hayes; Quadrille, Thomond, Calmness; Graziallo, Chippewa, Weirdsome; Anna Smith, Cousin Kate and Akbar.

ABOUT THE TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

A half dozen youngsters are entered to make their first starts at Aqueduct today and among them are two of the get of that good racehorse Ornament. They are Thermidor, out of the young mare Charlotte Corday, by Carlsbad, and Look, out of Gaze, by Falsetto. Thermidor is the first foal of his dam and was bred by Mrs. John M. Clay at Ashland Stock Farm in Kentucky. He was sold privately to R. T. Wilson, Jr. Look is a half sister to Sir Gaze and was bred by H. K. Knapp, the principal owner of the Oneck Stable, in whose interest she will make her start today.

Please, by His Highness-Charm, by Cheviot, and Pension, by Little Saint-Retained, were both bred by David Gideon, their present owner, at his farm in New Jersey. Please is a full sister to Delude and Pension is a half-sister to Adherent.

Twigs, by Ben Brush-Ambrosine, was bred by James R. Keene at Castleton Stud and is the first foal of his dam, a young Kingston mare.

Bolando, by Altamax-Ella Boland, is a half brother to David Boland and Boloman. bred by Burns & Waterhouse at Candelaria Stud Farm in California and will be exactly two years old Monday. He was sold to Thomas J. Fitzgerald for $25, practically given away.

At Pimlico there are three newcomers, all fillies. Edith Glen, by Glenheim-Edith E., by Prince Royal, was bred by J. B. Haggin at Rancho del Paso in California and was knocked down to John Mackey as a yearling for $100.

Shindy, by Knight of the Thistle-Fudge, was bred by R. H. McCarter Potter at Pequest Stud in New Jersey and is a half-sister to Running Miss. She was sold to G. Dudley for $200.

Profit, by St. Mark—Junaetta, was bred by W. S.
Diffenderfer at Baltimore, Md. She is a full sister to St. Jeanne, but she could not go far on that relationship.

JOHN TARAL IS ILL ABROAD.

New York, April 19.-From Austria comes the information that jockey John Taral, son of Fred Taral, under contract to Baron Springer, has been seriously ill and has gone to the Alps to recuperate. It is not expected that he will be able to ride again until late in the fall, if then.

CROKER ASPIRES TO WIN THE DERBY. Danny Maher Tries Out Orby and Is Enthus iastic About the Irish Colt.

"Unmindful of the rebuff of two years ago, when he was barred from training his horses on the New-market track, Richard Croker will bring over his best string from Ireland this season and compete in the leading events on the English tracks," says a London cablegram to a New York paper. not content with ordinary honors, he aspires and expects to carry away the Derby. The former of Tammany sent Danny Maher to Ireland last week to try out the chestnut colt Orby, bred by Croker from his favorite mare, Rhoda B. American jockey, whose skill is reckoned equal to ten pounds off a horse's weight, returned bubbling with enthusiasm over Croker's colt and its prospects. Maher is under contract to ride Lord Derby's Olympian in the Derby, but as that horse is considered to have small chances in the race Croker opes to get Maher released to pilot his own horse.

"Orby stands at the head of Croker's string and be entered, according to present plans, several leading events on the English turf. What plans, if any, the Sage of Wantage has for racing in America have not been disclosed since it was announced recently that his entry of Blakestown, in the Suburban Handicap, must be cancelled be-cause the mare had broken down. It was a keen disappointment to Croker not to have this entry America. There is speculation as to whether will send any others to America this season. He will bring several of his best horses besides Orby, to the English circuit, and will try to win here of the popularity that has come to him on the Irish

"Croker brought Orby to Liverpool a few weeks ago and cantered away with Earl Sefton's plate, beating Lord Derby's Persinus, on which the Prince of Wales and other members of the Lord Derby's houseparty had gambled so heavily that Persinus started at odds of 4 to 6. Orby is so well backed by London racing clubs to win the Derby that he stands at 16 to 1. Croker has already supported him to win about $40,000 in bets. The pres the race is another Irish horse, ent favorite for Slieve Gallion. Meantime Croker keeps on winning races in Ireland. His horses are now managed by Dr. McCabe, a clever young Irishman. Croker's stables at Glencairn are so palatial that Danny Maher says there is nothing like them in England. They are finer, even, than Egerton House, market, where King Edward's horses are trained.'

JAMAICA'S OPENING DAYS.

It is not often that a meeting of an important racing organization is scheduled to begin Friday, but such is the case in respect to the Metropolitan Jockey Club's spring meeting of 1907 at Jamaica. It is not a bad thing for the club by any means. Fridays are unusually off days on racetracks, but in this case the Excelsior Handicap will be sure to attract a huge Friday attendance and, with a big Saturday crowd to follow, the club will start off with two exceedingly profitable days, April 26 and 27. The only stake race for Friday is the Excelsior Handicap, but so absorbing will be public interest in the decision of this race that no other is needed. Like the Carter at Aqueduct, it is of the guaranteed value of $10,000, but unlike the Carter it is not a race for sprinters, being a dash of a mile and a sixteenth. Go Between, at 126 pounds, is the top weight, but is not likely to be a starter until later in the year, so Dr. Gardner will be the top weight at 123 pounds, unless it is decided to save him for the Metropolitan Handicap, at Belmont Park. Dandelion, 121, is second to Dr. Gardner in the weight scale, but he too, may be saved for later on. The most probable starters and their weights are Hot Toddy, 117; Oxford, 117; Glorifier, 115; Sir Wilfred, 114; Pretension, 110; W. H. Carey, 110; Don Diego, 107; Rye, 107; Jacquin, 106; Cressina, 105; Avaunteer, 105; Orbicular, 105; Samuel H. Harris, 103; Philander, 100; Colonel Jack, 99; Tileing, 97; Tartan, 95, and Molesey, 92. Of course, some of these may not go and others of the good eligibles may try for Excelsior honors, but in any event a high-class race is in

The Elmhurst Stakes and Paumonok Handicap will be the features Saturday afternoon. hurst is for two-year-olds at five furlongs under selling conditions, and presents winning form in Frizette, Masks and Faces, Martha Jane, Magazine, Rustle, Blue Heron, Master Robert, Rifle Range, Thomas Calboun, Albia, Aunt Rose and Laura Clay, and a big array of dark ones in addition. The Paumonok is a dash of three-quarters, with Glorifier, La Londe, Don Diego, Okenite, Dishabille, Pantoufle, Sewell, Juggler, Don Hamilton, Clark Griffith, Botanist, Handzarra, Suffrage, Keator, King's Daughter, Frank Gill, Oxford, Inquisitor, Oraculum, Lotus, Horace E., Rye, Dr. Gardner, Halifax, Jacobite, Ampedo and Red River showing prominently in the entries; an exhibit of speed to please the most

SMITH'S RIDE ON OXFORD.

"Every time James McLaughlin thinks of Louis Smith's ride on Oxford in the Carter Handicap he shudders," says the Morning Telegraph of Wednes-"He is convinced, he says, that Smith had brainstorm when he turned into the homestretch. 'I never,' the owner and trainer of the stout gray declared yesterday, 'saw an experienced jockey in a greater hurry to make up fifty or sixty yards in a good field than Smith was in the Carter. In view of the rush Oxford made it is not surprising he quit in the left fifty nearly.

"The victories yesterday of Lally and Jack McKeon cheered McLaughlin up a bit, and he is hopeful of getting Oxford to the post in winning form in the Sterling. Oxford will not have to give weight in the Sterling, and he is a shifty horse at one mile."

F. NEUGENT WINS HANDICAP.

HEAVILY BACKED, HE DEFEATS GEM-MELL IN A HARD DRIVE.

Sanfara Canters Away from Ethel Day-Fischer Improves in His Riding-Nine Spot Wins at Odds-On.

Oakland, Cal., April 19 .- Almost tropical weather nditions obtained here today and fast time prevailed throughout the racing. The handicap over the Futurity Course, which featured the card, was captured by the favorite F. Neugent in a stirring finish. Some of the biggest commissions of the season were unloaded on the Salvado gelding to win the race and with four other victories going to pronounced public choices the speculatively clined racegoers left the track in the most pleasant frame of mind. Jockey Fischer showed improved form in the saddle, piloting two firsts and two seconds. It appears that the rider has been ailing of late, which, it is claimed, accounts for several suspicious looking failures on his part.

Aside from the handicap, chief interest centered in the appearance of Sanfara. The brilliant Ingoldsby filly displayed grand form in the concluding sprint and was held at prohibitive odds in the betting. There was a great commotion in the ring when C. C. McCafferty's Nine Spot scored in fifth race at odds-on.

Richard Dwyer relieved Jake Holtman as starter today. Judge E. C. Hopper, who is in supreme control of the racing during President Williams' absence, will finish the season out. Otto Stifel, of St. Louis, was a visitor at the track today. J. O. Keene will leave for New York next Tuesday with Red Leaf and three two-year-olds.

An excellent program is offered for tomorrow afternnoon and with such fast ones as Fred Bent, Lord Nelson, Governor Orman; Kokomo, Nappa, Grace G .; Talamund, Nine Spot, Iras; Edwin Gum, Jocund, Ramus; Burleigh, Royal Rogue, Pal; Supreme Court, Phalanx and George P. McNear among those likely to be sent to the post there is every prospect of fast racing and a big attendance

BANASTAR'S INTELLIGENCE.

That horses have almost human intelligence has been stated time and again, but it remained with Colonel Franklin Bartlett to place the thoroughbred racer on a plane above the ordinary animal, when arguing a case before the Supreme Court of Westchester he stated in positive terms that the famous Brooklyn Handicap winner Banastar refused to start in a race because he knew his owner was trotting man and not a lover of the runners.

In the course of his argument as leading counsel for the State Racing Commission in a case against the Empire City Trotting Club, which applied to Justice Isaac N. Mills, of Westchester County to issue a peremptory writ of mandamus to compel the State Racing Commission to issue a license and award dates for a running race meeting to the Empire City Trotting Club for 1907, Colonel Bartlett said:

"The Empire City Trotting Club was conceived by the late William H. Clark, at one time Corporation Counsel of the city of New York. The track was built by Mr. Clark as a trotting venture, and it was for trotting races and for trotting brushes and trials trotting or pacing horse. It is officially recorded in turf annals that about 1900 Mr. Clark purchased a celebrated running horse named Banastar. When the horse was sent to the post to run in his first race in the colors of his new owner, he stood stock still when the other horses started and refused to start himself because he knew he was owned by a trotting man and not a follower of the runners Is it possible to produce more direct evidence as to the purpose intended by Mr. Clark when he built the Empire City track?"

The statement was made in all seriousness, nor was the distinguished lawyer in any way discomfited by the laugh which greeted the remark, a laugh in which Justice Mills joined heartily .- New

ULLMAN'S CONDITION IS IMPROVED.

San Francisco, Cal., April 19.-Joseph Ullman, freatly improved both mentally and physically, left for New York tonight on the 9:30 train in a special car. He was accompanied by his brother, Ullman, B. J. Weller and a nurse. Dr. Gardiner says Mr. Ullman is nearly well again and requires only a few months rest to be fully recovered.

SCORPION DIES IN KENTUCKY.

Scorpion, the twenty-year-old stallion by St. Simon-Anemone by Lord Clifden, died a few days ago at the farm of Messrs. Fisher & Givens, near Danville, Ky. Scorpion was bred in England by R. B. Brett and was brought to this country as a five-year-old in 1892. He was no great shakes a racehorse in England, but he did fairly well as a sire over here. He won three selling races as a two-year-old and changed hands after each victory He was first started as the property of Warren de la Rue and was raced by him until he scored his first brackets, November 8, 1889. T. Green bid him up to $750 and got him. He next won in the name of J. Jewitt, November 12, and J. T. Clifton took him for $2,000, and after his victory November C. Lund bid him up and bought him for $3,250. He started three times as a three-year-old and was not in the money. That ended his racing career. Scorpion was the sire of John Yerkes., Larkspur, Excitement, Scortic, Joe Ross, Scornful, Sam Lyons, Judge Redwine and many other useful Hot Springs, Ark., April 19 .- Trainer Brandt departed tonight for Belmont Park in charge of fifteen horses owned by Barney Schreiber. Hayes, Tom McGrath and eleven two-year-olds. The horses are due to arrive in New York Sunday. The bad weather that prevailed during the past week caused Brandt to suspend training operations with Jack Atkin. GLORIFIER NATURALLY A GOOD RACEHORSE-HIS PEDIGREE.

The Queens County Handicap, in which Gloritier is carded to make his first appearance since his victory in the Carter Handicap Monday last, will be decided at Aqueduct today. The race is at a mile and is open enough to insure a stirring contest, even though the track is not to be fast. Glorifier appears the best of those carded and he is quite apt to score his sixth victory in as many starts this year. Roseben is not to be one of the contestants against Glorifier. Davy Johnson's big sprinter is to the race. There is no chance for another meeting between these two horses until the Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont Park, May 9.

Glorifier has six more engagements between now and that time, but, of course, he will not fill Gloriner has six more engagements between now and that time, but, of course, he will not fill them all. He is eligible to the Flushing Stakes, one mile, at Aqueduct Thursday, and the Excelsior Handicap, one mile and a sixteenth, which is to feature the opening of the Metropolitan Jockey Club's matering at Jamaica next Friday. His weight for the Excelsior is 115 pounds. His others engagements at Jamaica are the Paumonok Handicap, three-quarters of a mile, Saturday, April 27; the Corona Stakes, one mile and seventy yards, Tuesday, April 30; the Newton Stakes, three-quarters of a mile, Friday, May 3, and the Kings County Handicap, one mile and a sixteenth, Tuesday, May 7.

Glorifier is a splendidly bred horse and nature intended him for a good racer. This he indicated as a two-year-old, when he won his first four races and was only twice unplaced in his remaining nine starts. He defeated and ran close up to some of the very best horses of his age in 1904, among them Diamond, Dandelion, Von Tromp, Agile, Pasadena, Augur, The Claimant, Right Royal, Jake Sanders and Gamara. He did not race in 1905, but last year he more than paid his way, though he did nothing particularly startling. He won at a mile in 1:39 4-5 at Sheepshead Bay. June 27, carrying 120 pounds. In the Long Island Handicap, July 4, he was beaten by Dishabille and Von Tromp, but in the Commonwealta Handicap, July 7, he finished second to Sir Huon and licked Von Tromp, Ram's Horn, Proper, Dandelion and Tokalon. Here is Glorifier's tabulated pedigree:
